Hinkhouse, Myrtle Jane,
William Martin Smiley genealogy. Compiled by Myrtle Jane Hinkhouse [and others]. Privately printed, West Liberty, Ia., 1971.

GENEALOGY civ, 41p. 29cm.

Revision of Oliver H. White's Genealogy of Smiley family and descendents. Monrovia, Calif., 1949.

97351

1. Smiley family (William Martin Smiley, 1808-1891). 2. Smiley, William Martin, 1808-1891.

This ensign was conferred upon the ancestors of one John Smylie, Barrister, resident of Dublin, Ireland, probably in the seventeenth century.

It was confirmed by the Crown through Sir William Betham, Knight deputy of Ulster, King of Arms, in 1815, and duly recorded. The original document spelled the name Smylie, the confirmation document records it as Smyly, but these forms, with Smilie, Smiley, etc., are but English variations of spelling the original Scotch name.

DESCRIPTION: "Azure; A Chevron, ermine, between three Pheons, argent; For Crest, on a wreath of the colors, an armed arm embowed proper, the hand holding a Pheon by the point thereof, gules; and for motto VIRIBUS VIRTUS."

EXPLANATION: The Chevron, or saddle bow, denotes military valor. The Crest, above the wreath, is a mark of special honor. The armed arm signifies courage, or might, and was probably awarded for great bravery.

The wreath is symbolic of a victor. The Pheons, or iron dart-heads, indicate royalty or defence of Crown properly. Azure, blue, denotes INNOCENCE: Ermine, black, DIGNITY: Argent, white, PURITY; Gules, red, COURAGE. The motto means VALOR IN ARMS, or VIRTUE WITH POWER.

All bearing this ensign, and desirous of perpetuating these characteristics, should be persons of honor, purity, dignity, courage and loyalty. Such WILL be persons of PURITY and POWER.

A TRIBUTE TO DR. MYRTLE JANE HINKHOUSE, M.D.

Dr. Myrtle Hinkhouse was a devout woman, very dedicated to Jesus and her works on this earth. The many years she spent in China proper as a medical missionary, healing, bringing new lives into the world, living with the people, learning their language and cultures was a wonderful experience. For 33 years she lived, worked and taught in this country of China, plus 3½ years with China Inland Mission. A tragic happening changed this life for Dr. Myrtle and the millions of Chinese: under Communist rule which lead to time in concentration camps and finally her release to return to the United States in 1949 on the ship Gripsholm.

Dr. Myrtle gave many talks to people on her furloughs and on her final return home. She not only could give a missionary message, but also in her travels was able to furnish much of the information for the Smiley Genealogy contained in this booklet. She enjoyed the hours spent with many of her relatives and as she stated, "made their aquaintence."

Her family home in the town of West Liberty was to remain Dr. Myrtle's home until her health required more care. These last two years she has made her home in Valley View Manor, Muscatine, Iowa.

As a personal comment by her cousin on the Hinkhouse side, Joyce A. Wilson, she was a wonderful woman and she had a certain way about herself. Her life the last two years was centered around getting the Smiley Genealogy finished and sent to all the interested relatives. To my satisfaction, before her health failed, she was able to read and enjoy the manuscript as it is in this booklet form.

TITLE PAGE FOR GENEALOGY

There was need that our William Martin Smiley Genealogy be placed in a permanent form. Copies were needed that relatives and friends could preserve historic facts and have folks and facts at hand.

A few years ago "Aunt Nish" Gates loved to tell of the home in the friendly, but lonely farm home life in Pennsylvania and the moving westward even to Iowa.

To preserve the Smiley Family (brothers and sisters) was something of a feat, until they (5 sisters and 2 brothers) sent out their letters. It soon grew to be a habit and nieces and nephews filled vacancies.

One long interim followed:

The ones that stirred to action was the one November 12, 1956 by Cousin Orion Smiley. I quote:

" Vancouver B.C. Canada Nov. 12,'56

Dear Myrtle,

I just received the Smiley letter. It followed me out here. The kids decreed that I should spend the winter on the coast in order to escape the cold weather. I have been under the Doctors care all year and just recently got their release. I have had three seperate operations among them treatment for and finally an eye operation for a very obscure eye trouble that left me with only one good eye.

It seems some one (Etta Kelley was worked on in Ft. Dodge) of you tried to reach me this summer with a letter to get a copy of the Smiley Record. It must have arrived when I was in the Hospital where I spent quite a lot of time and it got lost. I had just typed the body of the record except the preface and a couple of papers where I got the carbon wrong side out and the Index. I have just written Cora (Lawrence's wife) asking her to type in the preface and what else she wishes and mail a copy to you. Now I didn't get time to proof read it but I think the names and dates are correct but if you find ayything wrong please correct it as I am far from expert with a typewriter. I tried to bring it up to date and include the supplement in the main body which was the reason I started on it. The old one was getting out of date. I would suggest if you get it straightened out that we have it printed if many of the family want a copy. Aunt Ema's record is missing I didn't have only the names of her children. Only the names of the grandchildren of my fathers family are included. If you decide to include them it would be interesting to know how many hundred there are. Lawrence and Cora have a baby boy (Keven Lawrence Scott, Nov. 11) and we expect to hear from Howard's any day now. That will make 21.

Hoping this will straighten things out and I didn't make too many blunders.

I remain yours,

O.T. Smiley"

The attempt to reach Miller at Wapello, California was futile. The effort was made to reach the Samuel Martin Smiley original Genealogy in her keeping, granddaughter of David Smiley (family scattered).

A typist separated and typed the original sheets of our old records.

The group of ten or twelve cousins in the William Martin Smiley Genealogy looked ahead eagerly to each successive "round" of news of our contemporaries.

Aside from what we can accumulate and file there are those near of kin we may have missed. Rooted in Pennsylvania, ready to join the ranks, we turn to the old files for a last hope. Hence names and ancestry now appear. I truly hope that as we compile historical names and dates they'll all meet with kinship.

On my visits and speaking in groups of church women 1918-1949 (from my first furlough to 1949).

Do forgive my slowness. We're never been an organized body. I am well, tire more easily than a few months ago. I can' carry a major responsibility of Genealogy, so lift up your eyes and voices, let's give attention to the almost lost records.

Each indentation indicates the next younger generation -- the issue of the immediately preceding marriage.

The vertical line marks the fourth generation -- that of the compiler. All names abutting on this line are of my wife or her brothers, sister, first cousins or second cousins.

Abbreviations: b denotes, born; d, died; m, married; s, son; dau, daughter.

Data following a semicolon pertains to the in-law last mentioned.

(6) indicates that the sixth item in the Supplement is a correction; (3), that the third item is additional information: [7], that the seventh item is the last-known address.

As used in the Supplement, the first figure of "2 6/2" is the No. of the item. The "6/2" means that the item orginated on page 6, in the second or middle three inches of the page, measuring from the top of the headline.

I N D E X

The Index includes all those in the first four generations, the heads of all Smiley families, all fathers who introduced a family name into the clan, all Smiley-born women who became mothers, and many not included in the above.

The figure preceding a name indicates the generation of the individual. "4/1" following a name shows that the name appears on Page 4, on the upper or one-third of the page, the same as in the Supplement.

GENEALOGY OF SMILEY FAMILY AND DESCENDANTS

Three or four Smiley brothers came to New York in 1806 from County Derry, Ireland. They separated and never heard from each other. One went to Ohio, and one to Virginia or Kentucky and later to Missouri. One record says that "David went to Ohio, and died in Indiana Co., Penna." but that may be a confusion with Samuel's son David. "Another was supposed to have emigrated to Canada, but we have never knowingly contacted any of his descendants, and really know nothing of him. I (Orion T. Smiley) met a Miss Smiley in Canada, who came from Derry, who resembled my sister Eva Smiley very much, but we could not trace a relationship.

"There is a tradition that the four brothers with their families were the last of the Smileys, but that is not the case. There was a Lady Smiley who was a great benefactress in northern Ireland. Several years ago I had a man from Derry in my employ, and he said there were many Smileys in Ireland."

The other, Samuel Smiley, went to Clearfield Co., Pa., about 1810, and became a citizen of the U.S., evidently on January 23, 1816, on recommendation of eight neighbors, signatures to an affidavit, of which the following is a copy:

THE AFFIDAVIT FOR NATURALIZATION, Beccaria, Clearfield Co., Pennsylvania:

"The bearer hereof Samuel Smiley hath resided in the neighborhood of Marple Township, Delaware County, State of Pennsylvania, nearly two years past and appears to us the subscribers to have behaved as a sober honest man who hath lived reputably among his neighbors."

Signed Mans Donall, Samuel Pentecost, Edward Fell, Joseph Rhoad, David Hall, Jonah Carrot, Fred James, Joseph Hall

Other papers preserved and now in the possession and keeping of C.H. Eckles, Atlantic, Ia., son-in-law and executor of the will of William M. Smiley.

I John G. Lowery Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Center County in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Do hereby Certify that "Samuel Smiley" a native of "Ireland"-and now an inhabitant of Bucaria Township in the County of Clearfield, was duly admitted a citizen of the United States, and of the State of Pennsylvania aforesaid, agreeably to the acts of Congress of the United States in such case made and provided.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the said Court at Bellefont the twenty third day of January 1816.

J.G. Lowery, Prot.

Note: In the upper hand, just under Center County, has been a Seal. I have tried with a heavy glass to make out the center of the seal, but unable to do so; however, around the edge are the words "Prothonotary's Seal of Centre County."--C.H. Eckles.

Note: The governor signed at the top, just under the name of the State and not at the lower left. It also carried the Less Seal of the State of Pennsylvania,"but not in very good condition.--C.H. Eckles.

SOME OF THE OTHER PAPERS

One dated Oct. 31, 1838, is a memorandum of agreement for the division of the MOVABLE property of one SAMUEL SMILEY. The paper is not all here and is in very bad condition and shows no signature.

Under date of April 4, 1877, we find an assignment of certain notes given to John Wallace by Wm. Smiley. These were assigned to John W. Thompson by Henry Wallace executor of the last will of John Glasgow.

A Mortgage given by Wm. M. Smiley to Conrad Oliver in 1868. Given in Scott Co., Iowa.

Then there is the will of one Samuel Smiley, dated March 11, 1834 and dated May 6m 1834, by Mr. J.O. Boone, Register. About four pages, and badly worn where it has been folded. I am not sure it could all be made out.--C.H. Eckles.
This covers everything, I believe.--C.H.E.

William Martin Smiley,(15) b Sept. 6, 1808, in Clearfield Co., Pa., d Sept. 21, 1891, at Walnut,(10) Ia. He was a farmer, and operated the first steam sawmill to be operated in that County. They sawed the lumber for the roundhouse in Philadelphia that was for many years the largest roundhouse in America. The main timbers were 9" x 20" x 50'. Many of the trees from which these timbers were cut yielded three timbers, two from the lower cut and one from the upper, besides additional lumber. They got the logs out in the summer time. Wm. Smiley had the reputation of being the strongest man in the (5' 8" height) community. There is a story that when they were building one sawmill, they had a heavy line-shaft that lay across two logs. Visitors came from the surrounding country to see the new sawmill. The strong men took pride in showing their strength, but Smiley was the only one who could lift that shaft from the logs. He was Captain of a Home-Guard at the beginning of the war. On April 15, 1830, in Pa. m Jane Glasgow, (13) (18), born Sept. 12, 1812 the daughter of John, Jr. and Jane (Bell) Glasgow. In 1868, they moved to Cedar Co., Ia., where she died Oct. 10, 1872. Here at Durant and later at Walnut they kept "Aunt Betsy" and Uncle Shirley. Their children, all born in Pa., were: Two infants, Elizabeth, Hannah, David, John, Dionysia, Emily, Susannah, William Martin, Jr.

One infant, died at two weeks; the other at two months.

JANE GLASGOW -SMILEY was a lady of abilities, we are told. We wish that we might have known her; next best is to have known about her and her talents, passed on to her family.

She was married at the age of 18 (April 15, 1830). Died at the age of 62.

She sorrowed in the death of her first two babies with whooping-cough when 3 and 4 months old. John, her 4th lived to be four years old. His head-stone and the double INFANT stone mark their graves in in their grand-parents' lot (Samuel and Elizabeth-Bailey-Smiley) in the Smiley Cemetery, a part of the home farm (now known as Pleasant Hill, (location-Utahville, Penn.)Cemetery). Two sons and five daughters, all born in Pennsylvania, grew to maturity under her watchful eye. As the girls took over house-hold duties, their mother did more spinning and weaving.

Industrious, she helped with the sheep shearing. Spinning the yarn, dying the yardage required skill. A checked pattern usw used in the woolen goods used in comforters, this was found to be very durable. She wove and sold blankets. One of these was a keep-sake in the home of her youngest daughter (Anna); she passed it on to her daughter, Myrtle Jane Hinkhouse. This one is now treasured by Dorothy Hinkhouse-Hansen-Towell, elder daughter of Frederick William and Clara Pearson Hinkhouse.

The spinning-wheel is on the West Coast in a Gates home. The carding-wheel has not left Iowa since it was moved with the family in 1868 to near Durant, Cedar County. Up to 1963 it was in the home of Anna; the home of Emily-Smiley-Bennett's daughter Mary Bennett Young now has it.

On one of Jane Smiley's horse-back trips over the mountains, she carried a four-quart IRONSTONE china pitcher. This has been passed on from Anna to Myrtle to the above mentioned Dorothy.

In early years the prized SPRING near the Smiley home was not encroached upon by modern highways: but today a very narrow margin gives it seclusion in its woodsy nook. It was very convenient for butter washing, and other home utilities.

Born Sept. 12, 1812
m. April 15, 1830
d. Oct. 10, 1872

Moving from their native health meant many changes: the busy home-maker was home-sick, lonely, away from relatives and she missed the friendly mountains.

SMILEY SUPPLEMENT

1 1/1 Orion T. Smiley, to whom, with Dr. Myrtle Hinkhouse, credit is due for much of the information given herein, adds: "The David that went to Ohio is definitely one of the originals. I had a letter from one of the connection regarding him. One of his descendents spent one winter with some of our clan. I corresponded with a descendent of the Kentucky bunch, who lives at Smiley, Saskatchewan."

2 5/2 When David's father's leases were running out and he was quitting the sawmill, he was short of men and was running day and night. David Smiley and his cousin David Farnsworth were boys together, and for a considerable length of time they worked eighteen hours a day, equalling the addition of one man. During his tenure, David Smiley filled every position in the mill except head sawyer.

15 4/1 Obituary Notice:
William M. Smiley was born in Clearfield, Co., Pa. September 6, 1808. In 1830 he married Jane Glasgow; of this union were born eight (should read ten) children. In 1838 (should read 1868) he moved to Cedar County, Iowa, where his wife died Oct. 10, 1872. October 7, 1875, he married Clara A. Guiar; of this union there was born one daughter. In 1878 he moved to Walnut, Iowa, where he was living at the time of his death, Sept. 21, 1891. The deceased was a faithful and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. He took his bed nearly a year before his death; but his last months were ones of victorious faith in a conquering Lord. He loved to testify to the preciousness of the Saviour and his promises. As his end drew near he was anxious for the coming of his Master to release him from his body of suffering and translate his spirit to that house "eternal in the heavens." He fell asleep in Jesus in the morning of September 21, age 83 years 15 days. The surviving wife and children mourn an affectionate husband and kind father. After brief service at the house on September 21, he was taken for final service and burial to Durant, Iowa, where old neighbors assisted the afflicted ones in the last sad ministrations to the respected dead.--
J. B. Taylor, Pastor Presbyterian Church.

16 4/1 John Turner was buried at Le Claire, Iowa.

17 5/3 Laura (Smiley) White died at 11:45 a.m. on October 30, 1948, at her doctor's in Pasadena, California, where she had gone for an x-ray treatment. On Jan. 17, 1947, she had undergone a left-breast cancer operation, which had seemed to be successful. But about the 1st of May, 1947, there was a recurrence, affecting her lungs, liver and glands. Of this she was not told. Pains, weakness, difficulty in getting her breath, and inability to eat more than a trifle at a time, were attributed by her to other causes. Months of intense suffering seemed inevitable. But her gracious and loving Heavenly Father permitted a blood clot -- coronary thrombosis-- to suddenly produce unconciousness, and in less than two hours she had passed into the presence of her Saviour, in Whose blood alone, shed on the cross for the remission of her sins, she trusted; where there is no more suffering, and where she rejoined her loved ones who had gone on before.

Interment was in Rose Hills Memorial Park, at Whittier, of her brother Will was one of the original owners and promoters. It is about 16 miles from Monrovia, and one of the two largest and most beautiful cemeteries in southern California. A grave space was most fortunately secured near the Smiley family lot, where her parents and her brother John were buried.

Laura's life was marked by an indomitable spirit. She persevered beyond her strength in the performance of domestic duties. In service, suffering and magnanimity, hers was a life of self-abnogation.

"Mrs. White was one of the most wonderful persons I have ever know. I feel that any life which touched hers must have been richer for it. I believe, and always have, that her unwavering faith, her steadfast heart, and her sweet spirit shown out for all the world to see in her beautiful little face." A young lady whose life she had touched. "It was such a previlege to know Mrs. White. Hers was such a lovely character-thoughtful and unselfish, she will be greatly missed by all who knew her." - A one-time tenant of Mr. and Mrs. White. "Laura was sweet and kind and good." -- her husband's cousin. "A truly noble wife and mother."-- A brother-in-law. "She was a great person and I did love her."-- a sister-in-law.

18 4/3 When Jane Smiley's son David, was about eight years old, Jane helped shear sheep, spun the yarn, and wove and sold blankets for the money for a second-hand clock. She and David went for the clock, which she carried home on horseback over Pennsylvania mountains, with David riding behind her. The clock was given to Carolyn Lee Cook by David, her great-grandfather, when she was about five years old. It is still (in 1949) in Carolyn's nome in Pasadena, Calif., doing service. (See GLASGOW GENEALOGY, 11/3).

19 Etta Grace Gates Kelley, 91, widow of Charles E. Kelley, She was born June 20, 1876 in Cedar County, the daughter of Layfayette M. and Dionysia Smiley Gates. Their home was right across the road from Rufus Hinkhouse home, north of Wilton Jct. Iowa. Etta was an 1893 graduate of Wilton High School and taught school in Cedar County before her marriage. In 1934 Etta started the local library due to Wilton not having a public library.

GENEALOGY of SMILEY FAMILY and DESCENDANTS

Four Smiley brothers came to New York in 1806 from County Derry, Ireland. There they separated in New York, never hearing from each other. One went to Virginia or Kentucky and later to Missouri. One, David, went to Ohio and later died in Indiana County, Penn, (but that may be a confusion with Samuel's son, David). One record says that another was supposed to have emigrated to Canada, but we have never knowingly contacted any of his descendants, and really know nothing of him. The fourth brother, Samuel Smiley (b 1764 d April 24, 1834 at the age of 74 years) went to Clearfield County, Pennsylvania in about 1810. He become a citizen of the United States evidently on January 23, 1816 on recommendation of eight neighbors, signatures to an affidavit of which the following is a copy:

> The AFFIDAVIT for NATURALIZATION, Beccaria, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
> "The bearer hereof, Samuel Smiley hath resided in the neighborhood of Harpie Township, Delaware County, State of Pennsylvania, nearly two years past and anpears to us the subscribers to have behaved as a sober honest man who hath lived reputably among his neighbors."

5. David Smiley II
b Aug. 14, 1841. Clearfield County, Penn. d Feb. 28, 1929: in Monrovia, Calif. He was supposed to be working on the farm; but at his father's mill they could not move the logs with the four oxen they had and David had to leave the farm to help them. It required four teams--four oxen and four horses--to move the largest logs. He worked winters at that mill from the time he was 14 until he was 24. The logs were floated down the creek. They would build a raft, and then wait for a flood to carry it out. When they got to the main river these rafts were combined into larger ones.

He was a member of his father's Home-Guard Company. They disagreed as to which would enlist and which would remain at home in charge of the mill. As a result, neither enlisted, and the Company was disbanded. Near the close of the war, with the draft imminent, his father employed a substitute for him, as his mother refused to allow him to go and his father felt that he could not possibly be spared from the business.

On Feb. 2, 1866, at the home of the brides mother in Penn. he married Clarissa Jane Weld (Weldon), daughter of John W.H. and Mary Ellen (Weldon) Weld; b Sept. 11, 1846 d Dec. 27,1913 in Whittier, Calif. The following letter was a letter written by Dr. Myrtle Hinkhouse to Mrs. Bertha Reidmyer, March 10, 1968. The information may not be clarified, but felt should be included.

West Liberty, Iowa 52776
March 10, 1968

Dear Mrs. Bertha Reidmyer:

Your letter of Jan. 10, 1968 is again before me, with the word of the death of Mrs. Vesta Stevens, and your offer to help me in tracing our Smiley "family tree" facts and history. I've written some letters of inquiry: and had some good replies. I kept a copy of my post card reply of Jan. 15th to you. Please turn to that post card.
On my visits and speaking tours in Penn. I learned bits of our ancestry. In the Stevens home May 26, 1964, I learned of a John Smiley, as I visited with Mrs, Leslie Smiley. My notes may need correction, but I have that he married Laura Thompson of Coalport, Pa. (Her father a captain at Gettysburg.) Their children were Guy, Ethel, Clyde, Leslie (who married Mildred Ricketts,) Cleota, and Beulah. You know I am interested in folk that marry into our Smiley family, but they are only names until you help me. Who were the parents of this John Smiley and his brother Bill?
Here are facts given me that day: so be surprised. These facts are only on paper: but some one told me that Samuel Turner married Susie Leamer [illegible] Mildred and that Sam Ricketts married Bertha Delaney and that their daughter married Leslie Smiley: their family of 3, Samuel, Camille, and Sandra. I have that Bertha and Sam Ricketts are sister and brother. Do you have a daughter Mary Medimyer-Gates? How are you related to Susie Leamer-Turner? Was there a John Ricketts who married Sarah Turner? Is she an only child? They had 7 children. If there are Smiley inter-marriages, please you tell me. When I saw the enclosed item in our daily paper, I saved it for you. Muscatine is our county-seat, 17 miles distant.

My mother's older brother David Smiley, had 5 children, the youngest Orion. His son, Glenn, and he did a lot of "family tree" work together some 30 yrs. On Oct. 22, 1966 Orion died: Glenn is equipped to set up our facts. In 1938, I had a few days in their home in Canada, when enroute to VanCouver to board the ship to China; and then I turn over to cousin Orion my material. His older sister Laura's husband, O.L. White set up our Smiley records in 1949. We have much material to incorporate, as we work toward a finished record up to 1938. In earlier years, "Aunt Nish Gates" loved to give me facts: and Uncle Will Smiley's wife, Aunt Fannie, had her family Bible dates. Our older folk are all gone. In good health, I don't dwell on the fact that last Nov. 26, I was 84 years of age. I live a very active life. Etta Gates-Kelley passed away Jan. 29, 1968 at Friendship Haven, Ft. Dodge, Iowa at the age of 91. I attended the grave-side services Jan. 31 at the Milton Jct. Cemetery with a group of close relatives and friends. That town and area was "home" to them many years. How do "Aunt Nish" and my mother come to be cousins of your mother? When Mrs. Laura Glasgow-McCartney lived at Mountaindale, near Altoona, Pa the family (her son Clifford and wife Cora) took me to see her: we drove out: then I heard of the 4 sons: my record says Clarence, Hudson Ray, and Clifford. Cora recently visited her daughter June in Clearfield, Pa. They wrote me then. It "takes a heap O'living" to keep up. Please you un-ravel how my Uncle David Smiley and David Farnsworth are cousins?

We used to hear about "Aunt Betsy Shirley" when she had her home at out Grandfather Smiley's home near Durant, Iowa and later at Walnut, in Western Iowa. Thank you: I'll be glad to have her picture: and the Leamer ones I'll give to William's son Cecil and family. Please put name on back. When you are finished with this page, please give it to me: I'll send it to Glenn and he will see what you and I are trying to do to gather some information, for the Smiley records.

I do thank you for all of your help, and loving interest.

Most sincerely,
